Lexington, 25th August, 1796.

This is to inform my friends, and the public in general, that I have just opened

A STORE,

In Lexington, where I formerly kept Saddler's shop, at the corner of Main and Grofs Street—Consisting of A handsome assortment of Dry Goods, and Hard Ware—amongst which are a few sets of Saddles and Shoe-makers' tools complete. A most elegant assortment of Milliner's work, such as Bonnets, Hats, Caps, Feather, and a number of other handsome pieces of Ornament for ladies. Together with a few lady's Watch Chains, and Gold Ear Rings; all of the newest fashion.

A large and general assortment of MEDICINE, Amongst which is the following Patent Medicine, (to wit)
Caffor, Sweet, and British oil, Goffroy's cordial, Bismarck's drops, Turbith's medicine of life, Anderson's pills.

Also
Madder Alum, Walking Ink-Powder, & a quantity of excellent Spunges; together with a number of other articles too tedious to mention. All of which will be disposed of at wholesale or retail, by the public's most obedient humble servant.

Aug. 25. BENJ. S. COX.
I have some valuable tracts of land in different parts of this state; as well as upwards of one hundred thousand acres in the great state of Tennessee, which is well known to be of the first quality. Any gentleman inclined to purchase, may be furnished on the most reasonable terms, and the titles indisputable; which may be seen, by applying to an owner.

A. & J. W. HUNT,
WILL PURCHASE TOBACCO
Of the present year's growth, at their stores in Lexington, Danville and Frankfort.

STOLEN

FROM the subscriber, living one mile below Abingdon, in Washington county Virginia, a large bay Horse, about fifteen hands high or upwards, four years old last spring, remarkably round bodied, trot and paces, has been worked continually this summer, and rides very cleanly, has a small star and has been branded on the near jaw with something like I, but is not very perceivable, he is out of a Felo horse, and thews the marks of that breed, and is sleepy eyed, his mane and tail black, with tail light mane; was stolen about the night of the 25th of this instant. Any person securing the horse and thief to that he may be brought to justice, shall have thirty dollars reward, or for the horse fifteen dollars and reasonable charges, paid by me.

Ann'd 31. ROBERT CRAIG.

Whereby I take an oath to perform on a bond or agreement entered into on the fifth day of January 1796, between Robert Pogue of the county of Madison, and the subscribers, for we do not intend to comply with that agreement, as we consider ourselves to be defrauded.

respect which is ever due to misfortune.

In the fitting of the ghastly report of the celebrated Abbe Sieyes was read to the Council, containing the strongest threats against England, and exhorting the government to turn the whole force of the Republic and to direct the whole weight of their vengeance against her.

The daily publication of a newspaper is not equal to the task of recording the rapidity of French conquests. We scarcely put forth our journal containing the account of some General routed or kingdom overthrown, and we are overtaken by some new victory, more astounding and more splendid than its predecessors! Thus the narrative of the wonderful successes which we gave in yesterday's paper, is to be followed by the recital of a more brilliant and decisive achievement which came to our hand last night. All the Paris papers of the 20th, and the L.E. claim of the 21st inst. arrived yesterday the 21st.

They contain the letters from Buonaparte and Salicetti of the most memorable battle which has happened during the whole of this short and unparalleled campaign—the most memorable not only for the undaunted bravery with which it was fought but for its consequences. It has concluded their brilliant campaign. It has opened to them all Italy, & we have no doubt but that before this time we have received the homage of every one of its Princes, and have dictated the terms upon which they will permit them to keep their territories.—and even in this, governments which call themselves regular ought to blush—for if we may judge from the plunder of Poland and its exiled sovereign, their only rule of conduct in victory is to divide the spoil. The letters of Buonaparte and Salicetti will best describe the wonderful effects of the enthusiasm which has led on the armies of France, and which has made the battle of the bridge of Lodi one of the most shining in modern times. It cannot be denied, but that where men fight for Liberty, there is an ardour totally unknown to the mere obedience of discipline. It is not the French but the charm of Liberty, that has thus in a single month subdued all Italy, and the torrent will be irresistible if the infantry of Corsica and Cabinets still opposes itself to her peace establishment in France. Good God, what an epoch is the present! On the very brink of being defeated by all our Allies, and standing alone the brunt of the battle which the French accuse us of having provoked, the people of England are bated only in listening to the treacherous flatteries of those who for three years have refused even to enquire into the principles or the conduct of the war in which we are involved! Can the ruin of a people be remote, who in such a moment elect the vassals of Lords or the sycophants of Ministers to be their representatives in the Senate? Let us hope that they will rouse themselves at length into exertion.

Lexington, September 10.

We are informed that on the night of Wednesday last, a company of men attempted to break into the house of—Frontman tavern-keeper in Stanford (at Lincoln court house,) and were fired on by the owner of the house, one of them killed on the spot, and another wounded, supposed to be mortal.

FRENCH VICTORY ON THE RHINE.

Received at Salem from Bourdeaux where it was published in a hand bill.

FROM PARIS, June 7.

Duchatel, representative of the people, to citizen Duplantier president of the administration in the Gironde departement.

As a post, going from Bourdeaux with dispatches, has offered his services, I seize with joy this opportunity to inform you of the good news which will soon spread far and wide among our good citizens. I promised you in my last letter, the particularly events in Italy. The paper to which I refer you, will give you ample satisfaction. It is not only in Italy that the signalize their courage; they have gathered laurels upon the borders of the Rhine; they have gathered them at their first steps. Gen Jourdan, the worthy Marshal of Buonaparte defended the Duke of Wirtemberg. Accept the substance of a communication from the Directory, addressed to us this day upon this occasion:

“After our success in Italy, we expected the Emperor would sue for peace.—We are undeceived. Austria has broken the truce that the French had made for the good of humanity. But the army of the Rhine and the Meuse has undertaken to make them repent of it. On the 30th of May the republican army took many advantageous positions on the banks of the Rhine. On the 31st the enemy attempted in vain to dislodge them. The divisions of Generals Marceau & Championnet contributed greatly to the success of our arms. On the same evening the armed force commanded by Gen. Kleber, and supported by other divisions, passed the Sieg and attacked the enemy, who lost 2400 men, of which 1000 are prisoners and a whole staff of officers. The army pursued the enemy with their bayonets, and flew to fresh victories. The Directory has promised to publish the circumstances of this memorable affair in the official journal.

We enjoy a victory of a different kind and it is over some late attempts of infamous speculators, in concert with England, to destroy the credit of our paper money. These wretches are as completely defeated as the Austrians and despair of any future success. The mandates, which their infamous business had depreciated to 66 per cent, have risen suddenly, and are at this moment up to 85, and things have a most favorable aspect.—The legislative body is firmly determined to support the law of the 16th February.—You will find proofs of it in what I submit. I cannot describe the joy of all friends of the country. What a joyful fight! Each congratulating his friend, and contributing to repeat.—We shall at last conquer all our enemies the speculators as well as the satellites of despots.

BLESSED EFFECTS OF JAY'S TREATY.

MR. BRADFORD.
You having been an early adventurer in Kentucky, and thereby had an opportunity of knowing something of the origin of the greater part of all claims to lands in this state, I must beg the favor of you to inform me (if in your power) on what right that claim called the Ohio Company's Grant is founded.—The embarrassed situation in which at least 6000 families will be placed, provided that grant should be established, is truly alarming; and notwithstanding there are very few, who appear to believe the claim a good one, yet many discover great anxiety, and are discouraging on the subject. The threats and imprecations thrown out against the company and their agents, and against Jay's treaty and its abettors, plainly evince a disposition not to submit to the claim at any rate.

If you are not in possession of the information required, please to insert the above in your paper; and any gentleman who is, will please to make it public through the same channel, and thereby receive the thanks of a very great number of the citizens of Bourbon county.

STORE will be continued by subscriber, in the house lately occupied by M'Coun and Callie-man, where he means to sell on low terms. JAMES M'COUN, Lexington, August 13, 1796.

FOR SALE.

ONE thousand acres of the late General Stephen's military survey of LANDS on Hickman's about ten miles from Lexington, and adjoining that part on which General Lawton now lives. For terms apply to Thomas Hart and Cornelius Beatty of said town who are empowered to dispose of the same.

Stop Thief.

To all Sheriffs, Constables &c. within the Commonwealth of Kentucky: WHEREAS complaint is this day made to me by James Roberts (upon oath) keeper of the public jail, for Franklin District, that James Beraft, who was committed to said jail for horse stealing, from the county of Bourbon, on the night of the 28th instant, broke jail, and is now going at large.—There are therefore in the name of the commonwealth, to require you and every of you in your respective counties, towns and precincts, to make diligent search by way of hue and cry, for the said James Beraft, him having found, to seize and take, and safely convey, or cause to be conveyed to the public jail, there to be kept until he shall be thence discharged by due course of law. Given under my hand and seal, this 29th day of August 1796.

ISAAC E. GANO. [SEAL.]
Description.

Beraft, is about five feet ten inches high, dark complexion, short black hair, crop shingled, born in the State of Maryland, has for some time been an inhabitant of Bourbon county.

LOPED from my bed and board, on the 21st instant, my wife Molly Perry.—Persons are therefore forewarned from crediting her on any account, as I am determined to pay no debts of her contracting after this date. Also caution all persons from harboring or in any wise concealing my said wife, as they shall answer it at their peril.

August 31, 1796. BENJAMIN PERRY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition will be presented to the ensuing General assembly, to sell in Robert Craddock, a title to a tract of land, lying in the county of Madison, entered and surveyed in the name of William Wallace, & containing 1153 acres.

Also a petition for a law selling in certain persons, (in truth,) power to sell all lands belonging to the estate of Maurice Nagle deceased, for the benefit of his creditors; a bill for which purpose, passed the lower house at their last session, but was rejected in the senate.

August 25th 1796.

The Subscribers

REQUEST all persons indebted to them, to come forward and discharge their respective balances on or before the first day of September next. Those who neglect to comply with the above notice, may depend on having their accounts put into the hands of proper officers for collection.

Boggs & Anderson.
July 28, 1796.

THE SUBSCRIBER

REQUESTS all those indebted to him either by bond, note or book account to make payment before the first day of September next, at which time he expects to go from here to Philadelphia for a fresh supply of Goods. Those who do not avail themselves of the above notice may expect no further indulgence.

WILLIAM LEAVY.
Lexington, July 14, 1796.

THOSE PERSONS

Into whose hands tickets of the Lexington Lodge Lottery were put for sale, and who have not returned the remaining tickets, agreeably to a former advertisement, are again requested to return the whole they have on hand by the first day of September, (as it is determined to fix on a short time positively to commence drawing.) Those tickets not returned by that time, will be considered as sold, and the persons held accountable to the MANAGERS.

Lexington, August 1, 1796.

NOTICE.

To all whom it may concern, that as I shall be absent about three months from this State, the Surveyors books of this county will be kept in Lexington from and after the fourth day of September next, by Thomas Bradley esq. who is properly authorized to transact the business in my absence.

ROBERT PARKER, s. r. c.
Fayette county August 27 1796.

TAKEN up by the subscriber living on the Kentucky river, near the mouth of Paint lick, in Madison county, a yellow bay mare, five or six year old, natural pacer, thirteen hands and a half high, branded on the near shoulder thus , a small star in her forehead appraised to 60 1/2.

Also a bright bay mare, three years old, natural trotter, 12 hands high, star in her forehead, branded on the near shoulder not legible, appraised to 60 1/2.

RICHARD LOCK.
May 25, 1796.

ALL PERSONS INDEBTED to the late partnership of IRWIN & BAYSON, are requested to pay their accounts or notes to THOMAS IRWIN or JOHN A. SMITH, who only can give discharges.—One month's indulgence will be given and no longer.

Lexington, 27th May, 1796.

Twenty Dollars reward.

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation in said county, in March last, a Negro Boy, about seventeen or eighteen years old, of a slender make, but remarkable large feet, on one of his hands is a scar caused by a burn, he is of a yellow complexion, his name is Henry, but originally called Ned, his parents I have reason to believe are changed. The said boy was some weeks past taken up by a gentleman on the north side of the Ohio river, and made his escape within five miles of my house. Any person who will deliver said negro to me, shall receive the above reward, or have him apprehended so that I got him again, shall receive ten dollars, and all reasonable charges.

RO. CLARK, jun.
Clarke county, May 24, 1796.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD

DESERED, from my detachment, this morning, James Danton, and Samuel Saunders, both private soldiers in the second regiment. Danton is about five feet ten inches high, blue eyes, light hair, and well proportioned; took with him some part of his uniform clothing. Saunders is about five feet eight inches high, dark eyes and hair, and dark complexion, rather slender built, took with him a light infantry cap, and some uniform clothing. The above reward will be given for delivering them to any officer of the legion, or securing them in any jail in the United States, and all reasonable expenses paid, or TEN DOLLARS if delivered. It is highly probable they will make for the Rapids of Ohio, or the mouth of Kentucky, & they were seen early in the morning making down wards.

W. GAINES, Capt. U. S. L.
Greenville, June 22, 1796.

For Sale.

SIX THOUSAND ACRES OF LAND.

ENTERED for maj. John Motby, deceased and patented in the name of Littleberry Motby, 6440 at law of said John Motby, lying on main Licking, being part of ten thousand acres, beginning at one hundred poles above the mouth of a creek that runs into main Licking on the north side, about four miles below the mouth fork of Licking, and extending down Licking ten miles. It is unnecessary to describe the land, as the purchaser will be disposed to make the necessary enquiries previous to his making any proposals.—The title is supported by those who have carefully examined it to be unquestionable—on paying part of the purchase money, a reasonable credit will be given for the balance.

James Brown, Atty. in fact
For Littleberry Motby, jun.
Lexington, June 15, 1796.

N. B. I will also dispose of any other Lands in Kentucky claimed by said Motby.

CASH FOR HIDES.

I will give Cash for Hides at my Tavern, nearly opposite Col. Patterson's, on Water Street in Lexington—where I will also take hides to tan on the thurs.

JACOB KISER.
SEPTEMBER 1.

AS the Scheme of a lottery in the town of Paris and county of Bourbon, for raising the sum of 2807 dollars for opening the navigation of the fourth fork of Licking river, published in the Kentucky Gazette; would subject the Managers to be accountable for one third of the tickets which might be in their hands at the commencement of the drawing, agreeable to the scheme published—I the Managers have therefore resolved, that the drawing of said lottery shall not commence until the whole of the tickets can be disposed of.

By order of the Board.

whom it may concern, that we SMITH & SOLOMON BARKIN, commissioners of Fayette county, Kentucky,
have our notice or request to a certain
John Haley of the said place, for the first (or near that) of twenty one pounds
five or six pounds of which we have paid.
This is to forewarn all persons from taking an assignment on the said notes or bonds, or we shall pay no more unless compelled by law—the said Haley nothing able to fulfil his part of the contract, for which the notes were given. SMITH & SOLOMON BARKIN.
SEPT. 1, 1796. 212

Notice—that I shall meet
the commissioners appointed by the county court of Harrison, under the act of assen-sibly entitled "An act to ascertain the boundaries of land, and for other purposes," at an improvement in a settlement of four hundred acres, granted to me, lying on Snyder's fork of Licking, about two miles below John Taylor's farm, and near Thorburn's mill, on Monday, the 26th of September next, if fair, if not, then on the next fair day, to take the depositions and perpetuate the testimony of sundry witnesses, to establish the said improvement, and to do such other acts as may be thought necessary, and in conformity to the said recited act.
